

Local Content Policy

RiE Group is proud of its commitment and participation in regional communities. This policy reinforces the measures RiE believe in prioritising to support the regions in which the company operates. The company actively participates in the local community, through:

- Support and utilisation of local services and suppliers
- Direct employment of local employees
- Fundraising for local charities and causes
- Attending community events
- Promoting family attendance in all company functions
- Support to community not for profit organisations

RiE Group supports community sporting teams, community groups, clubs, charities and appeals through the supply of man hours, goods, services and financial donations.

We recognise that the engagement of local service providers and personnel ensures not only greater financial benefit for the local companies and communities involved, but expands the local knowledge available to our company and assists in minimising the overall ongoing operational costs of our business.

RiE commit to employment of suitable local employees in the first instance, with subsequent priority given to location by region, State and Country.

RiE commits to fulfilling our social obligation for the betterment of our employees, clients and the overall community.
